

An expansion of the LaSalle Parking lot is being planned for even before approval of the expanded Marina and permanent breakwall being built. It will result in the loss of some trees including the home fo this little screech owl who nests here. We want the proposal reconfigured to save that small green island .

